Jury Awards $10,000 Damages.

After deliberating for one hour and fifteen minutes the jury in the case of Calvin Elam's administrator against the Paris Gas and Electric Co. and the Bourbon Home Telephone Co., returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $6,000 against the former and $4,000 against the latter company.

The case was a damage suit instituted by Elam's administrator growing out of the death of Elam which occurred last April while he was in the employ of the Bourbon Home Telephone Co., in the capacity of lineman and while ascending a pole on Walker's avenue came in contact with a live electric wire, the current knocking him from the pole and in the fall his neck was broken death resulting instantly.

The trial of the case was entered in to Tuesday morning and has consumed the entire time in Circuit Court since that day. The evidence was concluded yesterday morning when arguments were made and the case given to the jury at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. Judge Denis Dundon and Hon. C. M. Thomas represented the defendants and Talbott & Whitley the plaintiffs.

The grand jury made its final report Wednesday afternoon and was discharged from further service. The report was signed by Clarence Kenney as foreman, its principal features being certain strictures upon and recommendations relating to the Fiscal Court, on which subject it contained the following:

"Much complaint from citizens and taxpayers of the county has been made to us because of failure for several years past on the part of the Fiscal Court of the county to comply with the requirements of the law with reference to publication in a newspaper of a statement annually, showing the financial condition of our county. Members of the Fiscal Court have been before us and explained that such publication was not made because it seemed to them that the $137 to $148 for such service asked by the newspapers was unreasonable. This grand jury thinks that such report should be published annually as the law requires, and many of our best citizens have appeared before us and are insisting upon our Fiscal Court doing their duty in the matter. Our people want this report published annually so that they can sit in their own respective homes and know how much of the taxes paid by them has been expended and to whom the money was paid. Another grand jury should bear this matter in mind and unless the Fiscal Court has, between now and the convening of another term of this court, published such a financial statement for the preceding year, each member of the Fiscal Court failing or refusing to cause same to be published should be indicted and compelled to pay the penalty prescribed by law."

"There is general complaint from all sections of the county with reference to the condition of our country roads. The county authorities say that the revenue collected for the purpose of keeping up the roads has been expended for that purpose, and the best that could be done with the means at hand has been done. Citizens have complained that the pikes need to be ditched and the culverts cleaned out and by the lack of such work being timely done and in a proper manner, some of the roads are washing and are being greatly damaged."

"We feel that the county is not getting full value received for the amount of money collected for the upkeep of our roads, and our Fiscal Court should commence now and more carefully apply themselves to seeing that each dollar paid out on that account brings in a dollar's worth of road."

Spring Arrives With Cold Wave.

Yesterday marked the beginning of spring but however winter retired very unwillingly, but he left behind a farewell that is anything but pleasant. Last night a cold wave was predicted and today the weather department hands out the prediction that today will be fair but cold and a brisk wind will blow from the Northwest.

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject, that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women.

From the time the girl begins to menstruate until menstruation ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements.

Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are now cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. Caldwell, and after you are convinced of its merits buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

To the Shoulders of the Rich.

Will it be possible to transfer the $53,000,000 sugar tax from the breakfast table to the shoulders of the rich. Are the people sufficiently in control to accomplish this end.

These questions are being asked everywhere. The status of the situation is this: The Democratic House, true to its promise to reduce the cost of living in this country, will at this session pass a bill repealing the $53,000,000 tax on sugar and another taxing income in excess of $5,000.

The bills will go to a Republican Senate. If the progressive Republicans vote with the Democrats both bills will pass the upper body. The fate of the two measures will then rest with the president. If Mr. Taft accepts the advice of these about him, who were described by the late Senator Dolliver as being "men who know exactly what they want," he will veto the bills.

Protectionists oppose an income tax for two reasons: First—They are rich as a class and like other humans have no desire to pay more taxes than necessary. Second—Protectionists know that if this country, like Great Britain, France, Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Australia, Denmark and many others, gets into the habit of raising revenue by taxing wealth instead of the things the people must have in order to live, the tariff tax which gives them monopolies on the particular commodities in which they deal, will be reduced, which would be damaging to the nice fat dividends, particularly to such "American industries" as the sugar trust, the steel trust, the woolen trust, the harvester trust and Mr. Rockefeller's oil trust. High protectionist politicians receive stupendous sums as campaign funds from the tariff trusts, and money is a mighty handy thing in campaigns. The income tax is a menace to the citadel of high protection, so why should protectionists counter-act an income tax.

Present Gavel to Kentucky Society.

An incident occurred at the eighth annual banquet of the Kentucky Society of New York City, held at the Hotel Plaza recently, that should interest every Kentuckian. On that evening, Mr. Frederick A. Wallis, a former secretary of the Kentuckians, presented to the society a gavel made out of a piece of wood from a tree planted by Henry Clay himself at his historic home, "Ashland," at Lexington, and fashioned into a gavel by the Kentucky boys at the State University. The idea of the gavel originated with Mrs. Wallis, who, seeing the necessity of such an implement at the meetings and public functions of the society, decided to procure a piece of wood from one of the trees at "Ashland." Last summer while in Kentucky, Mr. and Mrs. Wallis called at the home of the late T. H. Clay, at Lexington, and referred to the proposed gavel, when his daughter, a great-granddaughter of Henry Clay, offered them a piece of wood from a tree planted by Mr. Clay, which had been destroyed by a severe sleet storm that passed over Kentucky several years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Wallis were highly elated over their success in procuring the wood and took it to the State University, where the suggestion of the gavel was made to Judge Barker, the president, and Prof. Paul Anderson, head of the mechanical and engineering departments. They were enthusiastic over the idea and esteemed it an honor to permit the students to fashion the wood into a gavel, provided they were granted the privilege of saving a small piece of the wood to be placed in the University's cabinet of Kentucky relics. The gavel is a handsome piece of work, being of hard, dry ash. On the knob is mounted a State seal of Kentucky in silver, "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." Mr. Wallis presented the gavel to the Kentucky Society, with the distinct understanding that should the association ever become disorganized or disbanded, the gavel is to be given to the Kentucky Historical Society at Frankfort.

Mrs. Wallis was formerly Miss Nannie Clay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Henry Clay, Sr. of Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Wallis own a handsome country place near this city and are frequent visitors in Paris.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES

—W. W. Blackford, of Scott, sold his farm of 50 acres in that county to J. W. Southworth for $7,000.

—Owing to the amount of tobacco handled in Carlisle and the new loose leaf warehouse that is planned for next season a stemmy is now proposed.

—W. A. Thomason, of near North Middletown, bought from a Montgomery county dealer Monday a pair of mare mules at $450. Mr. Thomason also bought several other mules in Montgomery county at prices ranging from $150 to $225 per head.

—Stockmen are offering 6 and 6 1-2 cents for future lambs in Nicholas county. More lambs have died this year in that county than was ever known. In some instances as many as half have died. This means the loss of a $5 bill to the farmers on each lamb.

—Caywood & McClintock, of Paris, bought 20 head of mules, ranging in age from three to 6 years old, on the Mt. Sterling market Monday at prices ranging from $150 to $200 each. The same firm sold 14 mules out of their purchase to different buyers on the same market at satisfactory prices.

—There was no cattle market at Georgetown Monday, a few calves being offered. There was a good trade in horses and mules. Clarence Graves sold to Chas. Thompson, of Lexington, 3 mules for $700. Jos. Finley sold twelve mules at from $160 to $225. Asa Jewell, of Lexington, bought 12 horses at from $125 to $175. Patterson & Rouse sold 15 head of Hampshire gilts at from $21 to $35 each.

—Live farm boys under eighteen years of age in Will county, Ill., made records of over 100 bushels of corn per acre the past year. The highest yield was 117 bushels and 60 pounds, counting 75 pounds to the bushel. These results were accomplished in connection with a country-wide boys' contest in which the corn of thirty-four contestants was harvested. The average yield of all the boys in the contest was over 82 bushels of grain per acre.

—Monday at Mt. Sterling a large crowd attended court. Streets filled with horses and mules and 1400 cattle on the market, quality mostly common. Prices were firm and high out the day was the duller in the trading line for several years on account of scarcity of feed. The best 1,000 pound steers sold at 5 1-2 to 6 cents per pound; yearlings 5 to 5 1-2 cents; heifers 4 1-2 to 5 cents, with the latter price for the fat stuff. The mule market was firm and strong and more than three hundred head were on the market, with the demand heavy and some extra good sales made, some sales at $450 and $500 per pair. A number of horses were on the market but the demand was slow, as most of the stuff was very common.

—The Messenger reports the Danville court as follows: "Yesterday was county court day and a very good crowd was in town. March court in bygone years was a rattling good one, but of late the people seem to have lost interest and none comes to town except those having business. We say have lost interest—but that's not it, they simply stay at home and work unless called to town on something important."

"There was a good demand for mules and cattle, and some sales were made. High grade horses were in demand as usual but there were none to be had. Plugs and medium grades brought only fair prices. The principal topic discussed was the scarcity of feed. This trouble caused the slowness in stock sales. Feed is not only high but very scarce."

"Business with the merchants was about up to the average for March. Several candidates were on the streets shaking hands with the dear people."

Breaking Away from Tradition.

The greatest importance of the Democratic program providing for the abolition of the sugar tariff and the imposition of a tax on incomes in excess of $5,000 is that it breaks away from the tradition that the government's income must of necessity be derived wholly from the things the people eat, wear or use, a tradition which has been responsible for wealth not bearing its just proportion of the burden of federal taxation, and a tradition which has been responsible for so many tariff outrages through so many years. Regardless of whether the bill is vetoed by President Taft, there is a little question that the Democrats have opened the way for its enactment when another man is in the White House.

"I can cheerfully recommend your remedies, especially your 'Favorite Prescription,' for all female disorders," writes Mrs. M. M. MONTAGUE, of Bluff City, Tenn., Route 2. "During the past seven years I suffered from pains in the back and ovaries. Tried many remedies but found only transient relief until I was persuaded by a friend to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After giving this remedy a fair trial, I found that it would do just what it is recommended to do. I used in all seven bottles. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce's remedies for all female arrangements."

"THE PAGEANT" BIG BLAZING STAR

"Darkness and Light" A Great Operatic Spectacle.

Splendid Music and Orchestral Accompaniment—Several Hundred Professional and Amateur Performers Participate.

Cincinnati.—The Pageant of Darkness and Light is one of the big features of "The World in Cincinnati" and is given twice each day. Several hundred amateur performers participate, in fact nearly 5,000 in all, several groups having been drilled for each episode, so that no one group is required to appear constantly at the afternoon or evening performances.

The Times-Star says of the Pageant: "It is a stupendous spectacle. In wealth of picturesqueness, brilliancy of color, it is of a far more impressive character than any other pageant ever given at Music Hall."

Judging it from the accepted standards of a stage production, it may be described as an oratorio with stage pictures, and action supplementing the music and the poem. It merely tends to present in four episodes, each of which is complete in itself, incidents in the spread of Christianity among the heathen nations. The four cardinal points are used in these illustrations.

Pagoda, China Scene, "World in Cincinnati."

tions. The first is the north, showing a North American Indian village, the coming of the white man who has saved the chieftain's child, and, returning her, wins the confidence of the Red Men, who are then eager to accept the Gospel.

The Second Episode.

The second episode, representing the South, shows a scene in Africa, where the explorer, Livingston, is spreading civilization among the natives. He longs for home and is finally greeted by Stanley, who urges him to return with him.

The third episode represents the East. India is the scene and the action refers to the question of child wives and the burning of widows, which superstitions are rescinded. The fourth episode, representing the West, occurs in Hawaii.

The pageant is produced in very elaborate style, and has been so thoroughly rehearsed that there is never a hitch. The scenic effects are very effective, several of them exceptionally so, while the costumes are vivid and picturesque.

The music was written by Hamish McCunn, an English composer of considerable reputation. He not only employs the principals and chorus on the stage as in an opera, but also uses an extraneous chorus in the auditorium, which should represent the Christian world, and which sings those parts that refer to Christian sentiments.

The music is generally of a good and pleasing quality, more lyric than dramatic. The orchestral accompaniment lends a good support. The first episode is musically the most worthy, the tenor solo in particular being of great beauty and lyric charm. The climax of the third episode is also worthy of mention as is the music, for the greater part, in the final episode. It suggests the theater more than any other part, its dance rhythm at the opening indicating the ballet and its dramatic fervor approaching in spirit the action that is provided.

The Pageant Master is Percy J. Burrell and the musical director Edwin W. Glover. They have accomplished an exceptional task in welding the heterogeneous forces into a serviceable whole.

A LIST OF SPECIAL DAYS

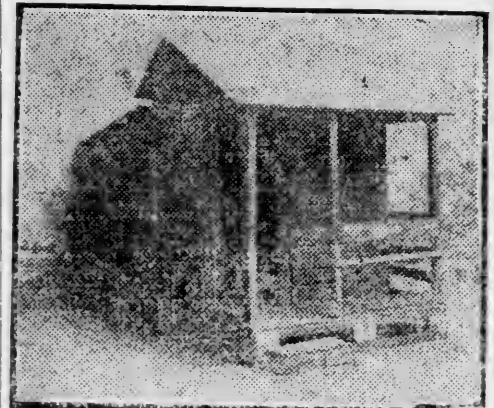

Special days for various denominations or countries are being organized for "The World in Cincinnati" by numerous committees, and throughout the period the Exposition is opened, promise to be a considerable feature. The days so far arranged for are as follows:

March 20, Wednesday—Evangelical Day.
March 21, Thursday—Japan Day.
March 22, Friday—Lutheran Day.
March 24, Sunday—Children's Mass Meeting.
March 25, Monday—China Day.
March 26, Tuesday—Methodist Day.
March 27, Wednesday—Baptist Day.
March 28, Thursday—Ohio Day.
March 29, Friday—Disciples.
April 2, Tuesday—Presbyterian Day.

Signaled Opening of the "World In Cincinnati."

Great Religious Spectacle and Missionary Exposition Is Attracting Thousands to Cincinnati.

Cincinnati.—The great Missionary Exposition called "The World in Cincinnati," the second of its kind to be held in the United States, was opened when President Taft pressed a button, illuminating a huge electric star. At the same moment a huge American flag was unfurled and the spectators which packed Pageant hall to the doors, arose and sang the national anthem. Large crowds visited the main exposition for the first time and crowds that tax the capacity of Music Hall are daily thronging the big building from end to end.

Mountain Cabin, in Mountain People scene.

Extraordinary Interest Shown.

Extraordinary interest is being shown in the exposition. Here and there through the life like scenes, courts and stalls of foreign lands, large groups of people are daily listening to the explanations of the costumed attendants or stewards in charge of the various exhibits. Every section has its quota of missionaries, who are mostly home on furlough from countries everywhere in the world. These men and women have many startling experiences to relate, many strange lands to describe, much to say about their work, and their earnestness makes them interesting talkers.

In the exhibition halls are booths representing China, Japan, Korea, India, etc. There one meets pretty American misses garbed in Turkish costume; also, Moorish women, with their faces concealed, all but the eyes. The colony of real American Indians, who stolidly mind their own business of making bead ornaments and other goods monopolized only by Poor Lo, attract much attention. Captain Gould, the ex-cowboy, also comes in for much attention. Gould takes pleasure in startling the small boy by lassoing him, and many kids deserted their parents to "unconsciously" wander near the fringe and be honored by a real plainsman.

Sod House and Prairie Schooner scene.

There are a number of halls where special features of the Exposition are in progress. A Hall of Methods, showing missionary educational work, where gifted story-tellers and young people in simple dramatizations, provide instructive entertainment. Tableaux Hall and Moving Pictures Hall are just what their names imply. Tableaux in costumes, little plays, and many thousand feet of picture films, are special attractions to the crowds.

THE EXPOSITION PLEASURES

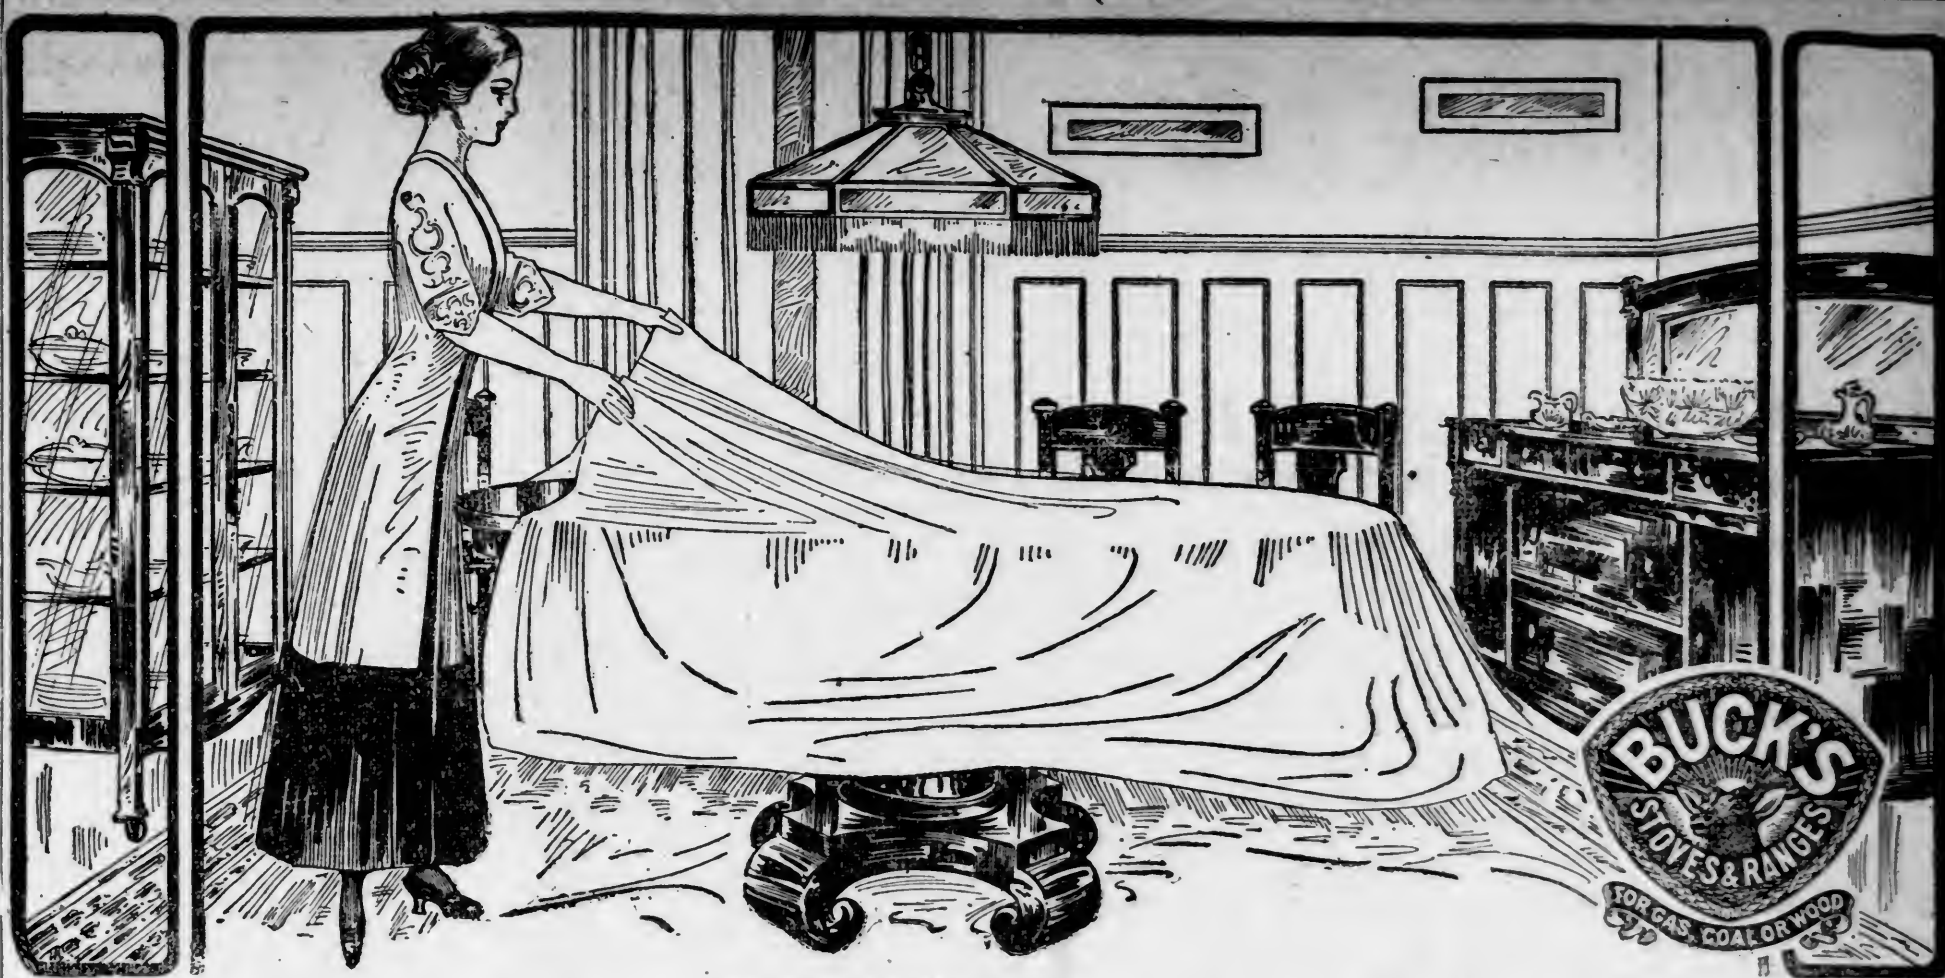

Necessary to Repeat Demonstrations, Crowds Are So Large.

Some demonstrations at "The World in Cincinnati" attract such crowds that they have to be repeated more times than those scheduled to satisfy the visitors. At some hours five or six demonstrations are going on at the same time in different countries. There are "A Tour Through Africa," "A Palestine Wedding," "An Afternoon Call in Japan," "At the Well in Burma," and demonstrations of worship of the different deities in the Hall of Religions and other places. All are happening at the same time under one roof, while in the "Hall of the Homeland" things are moving at the same rate.

One of the most picturesque demonstrations this week is that of the immigrants clad in the costumes of different countries as they land at Ellis Island, led by G. W. Bunton, who march through the halls before going through the medical examination and other requirements of those who come to our shores.

SEVERAL HUNDRED ASSISTANTS

The most notable part of this great Missionary Exposition is the immense number of persons assisting voluntarily in one way or another. Mingling with the crowds and peopling the scenes from foreign lands are men and women from Boston churches wearing the native dress of every land under the sun.

The Men Who Succeed

as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success today demands health. To fail is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak run down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. according to science, are the things associated with our early home life, such as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, sores, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains or bruises. Many Driven From Home.

Ever year in many parts the country thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right

Bell Completes Work Here.

Mr. L. P. Bell, representing the Louisville and Nashville railroad, who returned to this city last week following the conference between the committee composed of Mayor J. T. Hinton, of this city, John T. Collins and H. S. Caywood, of North Middletown, with Mr. J. H. Payton, assistant to President Milton Smith, to complete his work of securing options on land lying on the right-of-way of the proposed railroad between Paris and Hedges Station in Clark county, will leave today for Louisville to make his report, having gone over the route and put the matter up to the property owners, a number of whom have signed up for the right-of-way.

While there are a number of land owners with whom no deals have been closed the result of Mr. Bell's efforts have been very satisfactory and having met all of the farmers along the route, it is considered he has accomplished about all that is possible at present and will place the matter before the officials of the road in a few days.

According to Mr. Bell there will be only one serious drawback and that is the valuation placed upon the property by those with whom he failed to close deals. This matter he says will be a great hindrance, as in his opinion the officials will consider it beyond a reasonable valuation, and the outlay of money in securing the right of way would reach a great amount.

There is but one plan suggested and that is that the citizens of North Middletown and Paris go down in their pockets and raise the amount necessary to secure the right of way for the road from this city to North Middletown.
It is safe to say the railroad company would be willing to bear a portion of the burden in securing the right of way.

Mr. Bell, who has labored incessantly since his arrival here last week closed a number of options but there are still a number open and others that should the road be built, court processes will be necessary. Out of a total of thirty-seven pieces of property in Bourbon county through which the survey extends he has secured eighteen options and has a favorable report to make on a number of others for which no deals have been made. Mr. Bell makes the following report upon the land through which the survey passes, and the numbers of acres required from each farm:

B. B. Marsh, 9 3-4 acres, open; Thos.
Arkle, lot in Paris, closed; Mrs. Sue
K. Moran, 4 3-4 acres, open; J. T.
Hinton, 9 3-4 acres, closed; George Wyatt, 3 3-4 acres, closed; Miller
Ward, 15 1-4 acres, open; Kenney Bros., 5 3-4 acres, open; Mrs. Maria Bedford, 1-2 acre, donated; Sam
Mackey, 8 acres, open; Dodge Bros., 2 1-2 acres, closed; W. L. Yerkes, 10 3-4 acres, closed; Hal Woodford, 15 1-2 acres, open; Will Bedford, 7 3-4 acres, open; Ed Simms, 13 acres, closed; Robt. Davis, colored, 3 acres, open; Howard Gibbs, colored, 1 1-2 acres, open; John Corn, colored, 1-4 acre, closed; Sam McClure, 1-4 acre, open; Frank McClure, 1-2 acre, open; John Huttsell, 4 1-4 acres, open; J. W.
Wheeler, 1-4 acre, closed; Murray
Stevenson, colored, 1 3-4 acres, open;
W. L. Stuart, 1-4 acre, donated; Mrs.
Hugh Montgomery, 2 acres, open;

mon, 3 1-4 acres, donated; Anderson

Goff, 4 1-4 acres, closed; Wm. Jones, acres, open; W. W. Gay, 9 1-2 acres, donated; H. P. Anderson, 3-4 acres, donated; M. L. Blackwell, 2 1-2 acres, donated; Geo. Turley, 1 1-2 acres, open; Anne Bratton, colored, 1-2 acre, closed.

On the East end of the line and in Clark county and survey passes through thirty-four pieces of property.
Of these Mr. Bell was successful in securing options on one-half the number, several persons donating the right of way through their farms. They are as follows:

James Wade, donated; Mrs. Shelton,

Turley, open; John Kegley, closed;

PARIS BOOK CO.

At Opera House Tomorrow Night

At the Paris Grand tomorrow, Saturday night, will be presented for the first time in Paris the startling, thrilling and absorbing film story in three reels and forty scenes entitled "The Thunderbolt." Since the release of this wonderful picture only a few weeks since it has been the sensation of every city fortunate enough to secure it for production. It ran for one solid week at a prominent picture house in Cincinnati, and the same house is now negotiating for a return engagement. It will be produced in Paris for one night only, tomorrow, but the owner of the films have promised a return engagement in the future. It is impossible in mere words to fully describe this marvelous picture, but it is pronounced by all who have seen it to be the limit of perfection in the film maker's art.

Two performances will be given tomorrow night at the Grand the first commencing at 7:30. The price of admission will be ten cents to all parts of the house.

DEATHS.

—Mr. Richard T. Carter, aged 86 years, died at his home in Carlisle Tuesday morning of pneumonia. He is survived by his wife, one brother, O. P. Carter, of Paris, and two sons,
J. R. and G. L. Carter. Funeral services were conducted at the residence Wednesday morning, by Elder W. G.
Eldred, and burial in Carlisle cemetery.

—Mr. Ray Duvall, aged about thirty-two years, died Tuesday morning at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Duvall, on Vine street.
Mr. Duvall was brought to Paris about a week ago from Huntington, W. Va., suffering from tuberculosis. He is survived by his wife, and father, Mr.
George Duvall, of this city. The funeral was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs.
Duvall. Services were conducted by Elder J. T. Sharrard and the burial took place in Riddles Mills cemetery.
The pall-bearers were Thomas Marsh,
Harry Conway, Emmett Howard, Granville Denton and Ernest Hough.

—The remains of Mr. Walter S.
Conway, formerly of North Middletown, this county, were brought to this city Tuesday night from Cincinnati, in which city he died several days ago, at the City Hospital, the result of injuries sustained from a fall.

The deceased was identified through the efforts of Capt. Goodale, of the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, in Cincinnati, who telegraphed to the War Department for information about Mr. Conway's relatives. He received a reply stating that Mr. R. M.
Rice, of Paris, Ky., was an uncle of the deceased. Mr. Rice was notified and he ordered the remains shipped to Paris.

Mr. Conway was a son of Mrs.
Rhoda Conway, of Paris, and had spent a number of years as surgeon in the U. S. army. He was born in Nicholas county and later moved with his mother to North Middletown, where he resided for several years.

The remains were taken to Carlisle Wednesday where they were interred in the Carlisle cemetery, where his father and sister are buried.

THEATRICAL.

"A ROYAL SLAVE."

With all its wealth of special scenery, gorgeous costumes, bright and catchy specialties—is the attraction at the Paris Grand on Wednesday, March 27. This piece, which has attained such an enviable reputation and secured such a hold on the hearts of theatregoers from one end of this broad land to the other—is from the pen of Mr.
Clarence Bennett, author of "The Holy City," another notable success.
Mr. Bennett has located his scenes near the City of Mexico and based the fabric of the play on events which actually occurred during the brief reign of Maximilian. The great treasure—the secret of which was so loally and jealously guarded by El Agila, The Eagle, who although a serf, traced his lineage from the royal Montezumas—is founded on fact. The success of this piece has been so phenomenal in America that the firm has decided to present it next year in England.

A special feature of the production is the first appearance of "The American Chanticleer Girl." Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Seats on sale at Mitchell & Blakemore's.

In walking back he slipped on the snow and ice and was injured in the back and limbs. The accident occurred about the middle of January and as a result Mr. Hill was compelled to return to his home here to recover from his injuries. At the time he was employed as a traveling salesman for a concern in Cleveland, Ohio.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Faribault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me: As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better.

Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble.

A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work.

For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you.

Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.

SNAIL'S TRIP ON RAZOR EDGE

Scientist Makes Interesting Discovery While Studying Mollusk's Method of Locomotion.

"When photographing the snail," writes Professor Ward in the Strand, "I was surprised at the fact that even the rough cut edge of a sheet of glass presented no difficulties to its locomotion; its even pace was continued in spite of the fact that the sharp corner appeared to be penetrating its body. There, too, we have exhibited the animal's delicate sense of touch, and this led me to make a further experiment.

"After I had placed the snail on the butt of a razor's blade it slowly moved along the back of the blade and then climbed completely over the sharp edge, the razor being in excellent condition. As the successive waves brought the fore part of its foot near the edge of the blade its head was held low down, and the lower and shorter pair of feelers nearly touched the blade, as if feeling the way.

"At the moment when the sharp edge was reached the small feelers were fully extended toward it, and just at the very instant when I expected to see them cut off they were both instantly retracted. They were little more than a hair breadth away, and though the lower feelers possess no eyes, yet by their sudden movement I was quite convinced that the snail at that instant recognized danger.

"Still the foot traveled on, and slowly the snail dragged its whole weight of exactly one and a half ounces over the edge, later moving toward the butt and remaining perfectly unharmed. The species experimented with was the Roman or edible kind, which accounts for its comparatively large weight, it being the largest of British snails."

NEW RACE NEAR THE POLE

Explorers Steffansson and Anderson Find Men With Red Beards in Victoria Land.

Tidings of a hitherto unknown race have been received in dispatches from Steffansson and Anderson, who are conducting an expedition in the far north.

The strange race was located in Victoria Land, north of Cape Bexley. One theory of their origin is that they may be descendants of an ancient Icelandic colony from Greenland. Of unusual interest is the fact that the natives bear names that can be translated into English, suggesting that survivors of the Franklin expedition may have lived among them.

They have some Scandinavian characteristics and are different from any other American aborigines. Two of them wore beards of a reddish color and all had light eyebrows. Nothing learned from them indicated that the race as it exists today had ever seen a white man.

The courier who first went forward to parley with them almost lost his life, when a native attacked him with a knife. Friendly advances were finally successful, and by means of the sign language and the assistance of native guides communication was held.

The race was an aboriginal one called A-kul-la-kat-tag-ni-ut. It had been believed that the territory was uninhabited.

Tour of an English Choir.

We have at least one "big thing" to our credit that America has not so far accomplished. The Sheffield Choir, now singing in Australia, represents the biggest touring musical enterprise on record.

It numbers 230 all told, and when they return to Yorkshire in a few weeks hence they will have covered 33,000 miles in seven months. The cost of the tour will be £60,000, the transport and hotel expenses absorbing £45,000. The choir has sung to crowded audiences in Canada, New Zealand and Australia, and if the receipts are equal to the expenses the promoters will be satisfied. The youngest member of the choir is a boy of 19, the oldest a man of 72. Three of the choristers are circumnavigating the globe hatless.—London Chronicle.

Unknown Lower California.

The interior of Lower California is today nearly blank on our maps and is possibly less well known from a geographical and a geological standpoint than any other region of equal area in North America. The Mexican government has at last begun a thorough exploration of this terra incognita.

During the last autumn the Instituto Geologico equipped four parties, each comprising two geologists, to explore the northern part of the peninsula. The work will be extended to the southern part this year—Scientific American.

The Tramp's Excuse.

"You seem to be an able-bodied man. Why don't you get work instead of begging for a living?"

"I can't find anything to do in my line."

"You can't?"

"No. I'm a lightning calculator by profession, and the adding machine put me out of business."

For Cause.

STOLYPIN IS LAUDED

Agrarian Reforms Have Brought Peace to Peasants.

Millions Now Possess Farms—Socialistic and Revolutionary Agitators Vainly Appeal to These Contented Yeomen.

St. Petersburg. — Agrarian reform begins to bear good fruit, a correspondent writes. It was the greatest work of Peter A. Stolypin, premier of Russia, whom Dmitri Bogroff assassinated in the czar's very presence at a gala performance in the Municipal theater at Kiev last September.

"While quelling a bloody revolution Stolypin brought about a peaceful one," say those today who were the premier's bitterest enemies.

His great plan of letting the peasants hold land in perpetuity, which Stolypin inaugurated in 1906, has given land of their own to 32,000,000 peasants; they possess 3,000,000 square miles in European Russia and 7,500-000 square miles in Siberia. And the face of the land has been changed.
The peasant now lives on his property instead of miles away, as under the old communal system, when all the land was redistributed every three years.

Besides, the owner works intensively now, for he takes pride in his land.
Here again Stolypin's far-seeing brain came into play. He planned that mujik should be a speculator in the world's grain trade. He opened hundreds of farming schools and hundreds more are being founded. Besides, Stolypin arranged that money should be advanced to the peasant farmer at low rate of interest, 4½ per cent.— something unknown here hitherto.
The imperial bank builds granaries and keeps the peasant informed on grain prices by posting official quotations several times a week in railroad stations, inns and markets. Co-operative stores have been opened in the markets; the peasants can buy agricultural machines on easy terms; mechanical experts give instruction gratis to farmers who desire it.

The results are as obvious as beneficial. A sturdy, hardworking yeoman class is slowly but surely growing in Russia; this in six years, and the plan will not be worked out completely for several years more. The fact is becoming clearer and clearer that agrarian reform has done more to calm Russia than all the repressive dictates from the city. Socialistic and revolutionary agitators have no success where the mujik owns his land, because it is all he really cares for in this life and once he has it he will run no risks.

A tremendous outcry against Stolypin arose when he set this work on foot; all political parties ridiculed and abused it. He never could have carried it out had he not interested the dowager empress in it.

AIR MACHINE SAVES MANY

Persons Resuscitated by Use of the Pulmotor—Government Adopts Apparatus.

Washington.—Thousands of lives will be saved in the future in the opinion of the bureau of mines officials by means of the pulmotor, an oxygen pumping apparatus with which the bureau's workers during the last year have restored to life more than thirty persons who had ceased breathing. By means of the lung filling and emptying machine used by the bureau oxygen is forced in, the poisonous gases drawn out and normal breathing started. The machine acts automatically, any effort on the part of the individual hindering rather than helping it.

In drowning cases, gas poisoning and electrocution accidents, there will be many revivals, it is believed, by the prompt use of the oxygen device.
Hundreds of inquiries have reached the bureau of mines from hospitals, physicians and municipal authorities, asking about the value of the machine.

An official of the bureau said that to his opinion the time was near when every police patrol would be equipped with one of the machines.

COW BREAKS BUTTER MARK

New Champion, Clothide II., Produces
1,277 Pounds in Year From 25,000 Pounds of Milk.

Newton, N. J.—The world's record for butter production in a single year, held so long by Colanitia, a Wisconsin Holstein cow, has been broken by Clothide II., an eastern cow of the same breed. The new champion has just completed her year's test, and, according to the official figures, produced in 365 days, 1,277 pounds of butter from 25,000 pounds of milk.

It takes an exceptionally good cow to make 106 pounds of butter in a month, even in full flow, but here is a cow that has averaged that amount for twelve months in succession.

owed his success to her."

Leap Year by Proxy

(Copyright, 1912, by Associated Literary Press)

"I'm never going to get married," said Kitty to her Aunt Katherine.

Aunt Katherine, who was very tall and beautiful, and who was always dressed in sweeping black gowns, looked at Kitty severely through her gold lorgnette.

"And you are 20?" she asked.

"Men aren't worth bothering over," said Kitty. "Now, there's Rodney Hodge. He's the only man who will be at the dance tonight who is really worth while, yet I wouldn't be afraid to say that, he'll never propose."

Aunt Katherine lighted the candles over the fireplace. It was one of her fads to spend the evening by candlelight. Electricity was for the mob, she said.

"Why should you care?" she asked,
"what Rodney Hodge does? You are not in love with him, are you?"

Kitty composed herself. Well, you see, I could be in love with him," she said sagely, if he were not such a clam. "He's so—so fine, Aunt Katherine."

"Yes, he is fine," said the older woman.

Kitty's little face was very grave now, and her little hand was laid in earnestness on Miss Severance's knee.

"And so," Aunt Katherine finished for her, as she took the little hand in her firm clasp, "and so, my little Kitty, if you were a man and Rodney Hodge were a girl, you would ask Rodney to marry you?"

"Yes," Kitty whispered.

"Then—why not ask him—anyhow?" said Aunt Katherine.

Kitty gave her a startled glance.

"Why—Aunt Katherine—" she stammered, "you don't mean—"

"It's leap year."

"Oh, I knew you were joking."

Kitty's voice had a note of relief in it.

She changed the subject after that,
and Kitty went off to her leap year dance happily.

Miss Severance sat long by the fire, then she picked up the receiver of the telephone and gave a number.

When the answer came, she said: "Is that you, Bronson? This is Katherine Severance. I want to ask you to come and see me. Yes, tonight.
Yes—it's important. You will? It's very good of you. At nine, then?"

She paced the room restlessly, as she waited, and when her caller came, a gray-haired, stately man, she welcomed him with a laugh that was slightly nervous.

"It's about Kitty," she said. She was seated in a high-backed chair which gave her a queenly dignity. "I —I want to make a sort of leap year proposal by proxy, Bronson."

He looked at her keenly. "You mean Rodney?" he asked.

"Yes. Kitty likes him and I think he loves her. He did years ago. But —but he hasn't asked her to marry him."

"And he will not!" sternly.

"He shall not suffer as I have suffered," was the quiet answer. "You know how I staked all my happiness, Katherine, on your answer years ago and you know, too, that I lost. I will not have my boy hurt in a like fashion."

"Kitty—is sweeter than I," said Miss Severance, "and I think she cares."

"No one could be sweeter than you were," the old man turned on her fiercely, "until you learned to break men's hearts."

"And to break my own," said
Katherine Severance.

Out of a deep silence he asked:
"Then you, too, have suffered?"

"Yes. Do you remember a leap year dance and a girl all in white, with silver slippers and a rose in her hair?"

"You," he breathed.

"And she made up her mind that she would tell the man whom once she had spurned that she had changed—and—and—that he was the only man in the world—for her. But she was proud—and—she could not, for he gave her no opening—and, after all, she was a woman—and a woman cannot woo."

"Katherine," he said, and his voice broke; "dear girl, if you had spoken, how much of happiness life would have held for us."

And tonight when Kitty went to her leap year dance, all the past rolled back on me and I wanted her to be happy with a man like you.
It is too late now for us—but surely they—"

He laughed like a boy. "Too late?
Why, how old are you, Katherine?"

"Forty."

"And I am fifty-two. And we're young, dearest. And the world is before us. Do you think Kitty and Rodney are the only ones in the world who can live and love?"

He took her hands masterfully in his. "Look at me, Kate," he said,
"and tell me if you want to leave all the happiness to Kitty?"

That night when Kitty came home she was radiant.

"Aunt Kate," she cried, as her aunt, wrapped in a white silk kimono, met her at the top of the stairway, "I'm the happiest woman in the world."

"No," said Aunt Kate, mysteriously, "you're not the happiest. Because there are others."

DRESS IN ROBES AND SANDALS

Men and Women Try to Look Alike in London's Latest Freak Club—Members Are Writers.

London.—The latest freak club in London is called the Ethna. It has rooms on a street just off Piccadilly, and here its men and women members meet for intellectual converse.

The rule of the club demands that there shall be as little distinction in the dress and appearance of the members as possible, and both men and women don long flowing white garments of sacklike shape and sandals before they enter the dimly lighted rooms of the club. Most of the men are clean shaven and a few of the women have short hair, while those who have long hair twist their locks about their heads as tightly as possible.

No introductions are ever made.
Any member is permitted to talk to any other and to talk freely and openly on any subject. The object of the club is to foster free discussion between men and women. Visitors are occasionally allowed, but they must of course wear the flowing robes and sandals.

The membership is very limited, and a positive requisite is intellectual work of some sort. Most of the members are writers, others are interested in social problems and work on committees, while still others are members of the great band of men and women in London who seem always on the outlook for the very latest thing in fads and fancies.

BRITISH TO ABOLISH BANDS

Heavy Expense Main Reason That Musical Part of Military Force Will Be Dropped.

London.—The British army without a brass band—such is the doleful prophecy of the Pall Mall Gazette. It says that a definite proposal has been brought forward that all the brass bands of the army except those of the guards regiments, shall be abolished, and that the sole music provided for the future shall be that of the drums and fifes and bugles, with the pipers for the Scottish regiments.

Some years ago fresh regulations were made as to the maintenance of regimental bands. The cost of them fell entirely on the officers. The new regulations threw some of the expense on the public purse. But even now it is considered that in a modern, business army the officers should not be liable to this kind of expenditure.

Every officer today has to subscribe one day's pay a year to support his regimental band; and that does not cover all his expenses in the matter.
Take the case of the Royal Artillery band. The public grant is $4,500 a year, and the officers of the regiment are called upon to provide a further sum of some $15,000 annually to maintain their splendid string band.

BEGGAR SAVED UP $50,000

Found Dead in Hovel, Sullivan Had Bequeathed $5,000 to a Sister in Utica.

San Francisco.—Michael F. Sullivan, a beggar in San Francisco, for the last 35 years, was found dead in his hovel with bank notes showing over $50,000 to his credit in several local financial institutions.

Coroner's deputies who searched the room found a will, hidden underneath a mattress, wherein Sullivan bequeathed $5,000 in cash to his sister, Mary A. Sullivan, of Utica, N. Y., "because of her kindness to my mother at the time of her death." The remainder of his fortune shall be placed in trust, the interest to be delivered to his sister every six months, according to the document. When she dies the sum must be divided among other heirs under the laws of this state.

Sullivan lived by begging fruit. Ten years ago he was arrested as a vagrant. Then he possessed $25,000, according to detective James Mackey, the arresting officer on that occasion.

CHRIST'S SHOP IS FOUND

Excavations at Nazareth Also Said to Have Revealed Church Built by the Crusaders.

London.—A special dispatch published in the Pall Mall Gazette reports that excavations at Nazareth, the home of Christ in Palestine, have revealed an eleventh century Crusaders' church with wonderful mosaics, stone doors and utensils and exquisite ornaments.

It is also said that another important discovery is believed to be the site of the carpenter shop of Joseph, the father of Jesus. The church is now being uncovered.

The message says that, according to the researches of the most learned explorers, the church was built by the first Crusaders at this hallowed spot, and it afterwards fell into the hands of the victorious Mohammedans.

The monks of the Franciscan order purpose to build a temple on the spot.

Used Piano for Bed.

Philadelphia.—Ralph Bechtel, an old time actor, known on the stage as Jack Meyers, was found dead in bed.
The gas jet was turned on, but all indications point to an accidental death.
Bechtel was employed as a scene painter.

Bechtel, like many old-time actors, had peculiarities. While there was a brass bed in the house he preferred to sleep on top of the piano in his parlor. Under his pillow was a sword used by him the first time he appeared on the stage.

Rabbit Fur for Felt Hats.

Rabbit fur has supplanted wool in felt-hat making in Sydney, Australia, where 32 factories are in operation.
The fur is considerably superior to the finest merino for this purpose, and millions of rabbit skins are used annually. It takes the fur of about six average skins to make a fur-felt hat.
In one factory the consumption of skins ranges from 25,000 to 30,000 per week.

MARTIN BOWLES.

Miss Sallie McIntyre, who has so successfully taught the primary department at M. F. C., for the past eleven years, has resigned her position to take effect in September. Her patrons and many friends will learn of this with much regret.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church held an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mary Whaley. The meeting in the forenoon was presided over by Mrs. E. M. Thomason, in the afternoon by Miss Alfa Ball. It was an interesting one.

A man walked into the Mitchell House Saturday night claiming to be a representative of the Courier-Journal and the Louisville Times. He had no baggage and was rather poorly dressed. He said he was walking over the country soliciting the rural route people. On Sunday morning he obtained some polish from Mrs. Mitchell and arranged his toilet as neatly as he could. Sunday afternoon he left the house saying he was going out for a short walk. He has not been seen nor heard of since. Of course he left his bill unpaid.

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Paris Cannot Doubt
What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for relief from aches and pains and bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Paris, who so testified years ago, now say the results were permanent. This testimony doubtless proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Paris kidney sufferers.

Mrs. J. T. Martin, Pleasant and Eleventh streets, Paris, Ky., says: "All I have ever said praising Doan's Kidney Pills was entirely correct and confirm my former public endorsement of this remedy. It permanently cured me of kidney trouble. I suffered quite severely from pains across the small of my back and in my kidneys. The trouble alarmed me and I tried many medicines. I did not get relief however, until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Wilson's drug store. They improved my condition in every way and I certainly can say they are a reparation of merit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Ex-Parisian's Good Showing.

A St. Louis newspaper of recent issue contained the following of Mr. James C. Chambers, formerly of this city, a son of Mrs. Kate Chambers, of Paris:

"The Commonwealth Trust Company bond department reports the sale of the Stephenville North and South Texas Railway Company bonds as being quite brisk in the Eastern markets, they having placed over two-thirds of the entire issue of $2,423,000 in New York City, showing the demand in the East for rail bonds of this character. The bond department of the Commonwealth Trust Company, which was recently organized under the able management of Mr. James D. Chambers, who for five years was manager of the bond department of the Union Savings Bank and Trust Company of Cincinnati, has been making rapid strides, and are today in a position to furnish bond buyers any information they may desire with reference to investment securities.

Secures Pardon.

Governor McCreary pardoned the remainder of the jail sentence of George Gamble, convicted in police court in this city for carrying concealed weapons. The fine and jail sentence was imposed by Judge E. B. January and Gamble having served five days the official asked Governor McCreary to pardon the remaining five days. Gamble was fined $25 and given ten days in jail. He is connected with a construction crew located near this city.

Keller Not in Race.

Hon. W. J. Fields, congressman from the Ninth Kentucky District, has made a formal announcement of his candidacy for renomination. It is practically assured that Congressman Fields will not have opposition, though there are several counties that have favorite sons they would like to have the honor. During the past week many of the friends of Col. G. R. Keller, representative from the Robinson-Nicholas legislative district, have been mentioning his name as a suitable man for the place. But it is certain that Col. Keller will not consider entering the race, as he is one of Congressman Field's strongest supporters in this election.

Many sufferers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted with the prompt relief afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. This liniment is for sale by all dealers.

193t B. WEISSBERG.

Hauser is Now a Hold-Out.

James Hauser, who last year was a member of the Paris team, was one of the most promising young pitchers in the Blue Grass League, is a hold-out, and there is a possibility that he will not return to Paris this season. The fact that Hauser has so far failed to sign a contract has been the source of considerable uneasiness on the part of the local fans who looked upon him as being the mainstay of the Bourbonites this season.

Hauser is holding out for more money according to President Bacon, and the amount he has asked is beyond the reach of the local club. The sturdy young fellow was forwarded a contract some two months ago and the Paris management was very liberal in granting an increase in his salary over last year, but Hauser wants more and has stated that unless his demands are met he will remain in his home town this season and pitch independent ball.

In a letter to a friend in this city he stated that he did not intend to return to Paris, but there is a belief that he will reconsider and the fans here entertain the hope that he will make up his mind to report in time to go into training with the other members of the club when they arrive here about April 11.

Last season Hauser was regarded as the most promising piece of base ball timber on the Paris team or in the league and with the substantial increase in his salary over last season it was the opinion of the local management that he would be one of the first to return his contract. Being on the reserve list it will be impossible to participate in organized base ball unless the Paris management grants his release.

President Bacon, who has been making an effort to secure a catcher from one of the clubs higher up, states that so far he has not succeeded but that the man he has in view has asked for terms which have been forwarded him, and he is daily expecting a reply.

NOTES.

All doubt as to whether Richmond will have a team in the Blue Grass League this season was dispelled Saturday when it was reported that the committee appointed to solicit funds with which to put the team on a good sound footing this season reported that the necessary $2,000 had been raised. The fans went down in their pockets and responded nobly to the call and now a team is assured.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Winchester club held in that city Wednesday night a new board of directors was elected and it was announced that $1,000 had been subscribed towards financing the club this season. An additional $600 is needed but it is believed this amount will be raised in a few days. It is the hope of the management to secure C. V. Moran, of Washington, D. C., to manage the team this season.

Jimmy Viox, a former Colt, is with the Pirates in training at Hot Springs. According to reports from the training camp the little shortfielder is making a very creditable showing.
